

Sandplay therapy creates a bridge between the conscious and unconscious. Dora Kalff (1904–1990) describes it as a “pathway to the psyche...In the hands of a properly prepared therapist, it is a powerful, invaluable modality”.

“The Sandplay method takes the limited therapeutic possibilities of language into account with great seriousness and offers alternative means of psychic expression”. Dr Martin Kalff (2003)

Level 3: Sandplay Therapy – Clinical practitioner

A psychotherapeutic, long term, insight-oriented therapy based on work of Dora Kalff and the Psychology of CG Jung.

This two-day workshop has been designed specifically for clinicians who are already incorporating Sand Tray and supervised Sandplay as an adjunctive modality into their clinical practice. Pre-requisites are:

- Completion of Level 2 and current use of sandplay in clinical practice.
- Bring a session example to share.
- Continuation to engage in regular Sandplay supervision.

Overview of the training

The training expands on Level 2. Content includes:

- Working with children & teens: neuro-developmental theory relating to both age groups. Teen case vignettes.
- Working with adults: Ego strength; Diverse client groups. Contraindications. Adult case vignettes.
- Training opportunities within and outside of NZ: broadening your knowledge of Jungian Psychology and Kalffian principles e.g. day courses on specific topics.
- The purpose and necessity of engaging in one’s own Sandplay process.
- Assignment to encourage reflective case study and practice: CHOOSE One Book to review and Sandplay Journal paper review (*1 extra day attendance credited on completion of assignment)
