

An open invitation

An open invitation to any Therapist / Counsellor / Psychologist who is using Sand Tray and / or Sandplay in their clinical practice to join us for a confidential discussion of questions and curiosity arising in your clinical practice of this wonderful modality.

Practitioners who have previously undertaken training with myself and/or Carina Conradie are particularly welcomed. Those who have trained in Hamilton with us will be able to accrue Continuing Professional Development hours towards CST certification if you so wish. Please bring a supervision log for signing.

Those who have done workshops prior to 2019 are also encouraged to keep a log for CPD.

Format

- Confidential discussion of case material that raises one question for you.
- Each night a particular aspect of use of the sand / process will be highlighted. (This complements the Symbol study groups which Carina Conradie hosts on Zoom).
